JUNE MEETING

Our June meeting of the Malted Barley Appreciation Society had Shane Welch and Andrew Bronstein of Sixpoint as our guests.

Thanks to Glenn Burnett for the many terrific photos, and Shane of Sixpoint for the Sixpoint updates!

"Sixpoint Craft Ales continues to come out with new styles. We just released our Imperial Red Ale and are featuring the Bengali Tiger dry-hopped and in casks around the city. Keep an eye out for our Imperial Stout and our Barley Wine this fall.

Sixpoint Craft Ales is also planning a "Sixpoint Burlesque Night" at Barcade in BKLYN on Thursday, August 25th. There will be six different Sixpoint Craft Ales on-tap for $4 each and live go-go girlie dancing. More details to come..." ~ Shane C. Welch

Shane enjoys another type of beverage, water, on this steamy evening!

LENA ENJOYS THOSE SIXPOINT BEERS!
